

Moon Shadow Road

T. Graham Brown

All day Friday, I'd be daydreaming
Of borrowing my old man's Catalina
And picking up my baby just as the sun went down
We'd look in the paper to see what was showing
 In case her Daddy asked us
 Where we were going
Then we'd head on out to a place that we'd found
On the outskirts of townOut on Moonshadow Road
 Where we all used to go
Part of growing up was learning 'bout love by the light of the radio
 Not a care in the world
 Just a boy and a girl
 We found out all we need to know
 Out on Moonshadow RoadThat's where we learned
 'Bout giving and taking and
 How young love can be heart breaking
 We took our first chances,
Made our first mistakesJust an old dirt road in the middle of nowhere
 But there's so much we came to know there
 I'll always remember those sweet summer nights
 That felt so rightOut on Moonshadow Road
 Where we all used to go
Part of growing up was learning 'bout love by the light of the radio
 Not a care in the world
 Just a boy and a girl
 We found out all we need to know
 Out on Moonshadow RoadOut on Moonshadow Road
 Where we all used to go
Part of growing up was learning 'bout love by the light of the radio
 Not a care in the world
 Just a boy and a girl
 We found out all we need to know
 Out on Moonshadow Road
