Open Book

Tab Benoit

A glass of wine
Is much too fine for you girl
Did you know your skin is paper thin
I can see on through girlYou can stand and pout
'Cause I ain't taking you out, no
And I don't care how beautiful you look
I'll read you like an open bookNow you're right on time by the door at nine
Searching for your goldmine
Got the dude who's bubble and crude
When you're in a spending moodYou can stand and pout
'Cause I ain't taking you out
And I don't care how beautiful you look
I'll read you like an open bookI spotted you in Reno down at the Casino
Giving all you got away to any guy who pays
So don't even look at me
No, my red [Incomprehensible] is all I seeYou can stand and pout
'Cause I ain't taking you out
And I don't care how beautiful you look
I'll read you like an open bookWell, you can stand and pout
'Cause I ain't taking you out
And I don't care how beautiful you look
I'll read you like an open book
