

Casino (feat. Clare Bowen & Sam Palladio)

Nashville Cast

Like a coin,
I was tossed into a wishing fountain,
I was only one of a thousand,
looking for a little fortune.
And you, picked me up and put me into your pocket,
Nothing I could do to stop it,
It started out full of promise.
The shimmer of the shine that I'd never seen before. The brights lights,
I was taken in by the spotlight coming from the stare
of your wanting eyes,
like a Vegas green glow.
Yeah, grasping, wishing I could roll the dice again.
You can always love, but you can't win.
A heart is like the money you blow.
Casino. Worthless,
I didn't even know I was losing,
But I was just a card you were using,
A trick that you were good at playing.
Oh and, luck, didn't build up the Monte Carlo,
Just like love never promised tomorrow,
You were only looking to borrow.
And I thought I had the chance,
but I gave it away to, The brights lights,
I was taken in by the spotlight coming from the stare
of your wanting eyes,
like a Vegas green glow.
Yeah, grasping, wishing I could roll the dice again.
You can always love, but you can't win.
A heart is like the money you blow.
Casino. The brights lights,
I was taken in by the spotlight coming from the stare
of your wanting eyes,
like a Vegas green glow.
Yeah, grasping, wishing I could roll the dice again.
You can always love, but you can't win.
A heart is like the money you blow.
Casino.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>