Wanna Be There (feat. AriirayÃ©)

R. Kelly

Things that I have to say to you
You need to hear
And I know we've got some rebuildin', oh
But I believe time will healAnything that you wanna do
Baby girl I'mma support you
And anything that you're going through
I swear I will be there for you, you
It's been so many years so I know it feels awkward
Know you had to tuck all of your tears in your school locker
And I understand your position
And why your heart went missin'
And things that you wonderedOh oh-ooh
I know that you mad at me, thinkin' that I didn't care
Talk to me, 'causeI just wanna be there
When you conquer the world I just wanna be there
But no matter how successful baby girl
When you need someone to lean on I just wanna be your shoulder
When you need someone to call on I wanna be the one to hold ya
I just wanna be there
(Be there
Be there, be there)
I just wanna be thereCall me back when I be calling you
'Cause I be feelin' like I'm stalking you
And I know you've got issues with rejection, oh
I'm just being honest, I know what you're thinking, never did I neglect ya, no
'Cause I love you too much (?)
And I would just kill myself before I do anything to hurt ya
One hunnid, all I ever wanted to do is please you
And I don't know what happened to us but I need youI just wanna be there
When you conquer the world I just wanna be there
But no matter how successful baby girl
When you need someone to lean on I just wanna be your shoulder
When you need someone to call on I wanna be the one to hold ya
I just wanna be there
(Be there
Be there, be there)
I just wanna be thereI know that there were so many things going on
And there were some times I thought I wouldn't make it
But my brothers and me kept each other strong

How do I tell 'em why you're not there when I don't even know myself
I hate you, I love you, I do and I don't wanna see you
You tell us you need us but that we just need to believe you
My heart is broke, it's so hard to cope
And every night I cry out to heaven 'cause I need you both more
And sometimes it was easy to not say anything
My mind was at war, baby you're not the enemy
And it still feels like we're miles away
But I can meet you halfway 'cause at the end of the dayI just wanna be there
Be there for you, yeah, yeah
When you conquer the world I just wanna be there
But no matter how successful baby girl
When you need someone to lean on I just wanna be your shoulder
When you need someone to call on I wanna be the one to hold ya
I just wanna be there
(Be there
Be there, be there)
I just wanna be there
