Silent Nothingness

Heathen

Darkness has consumed your soul, now you curse the sky
Agony and solitude like worms feed on your pride
Innocence has been erased as shadows stain the sun
Now it's time to pay the price for all that you have doneSilent cry
Hear the voices whisper, "Do it"
Shattered life
Fading into silent nothingnessPhantom of the universe, devouring mankind
Infection to humanity poisoning the blind
Centuries have come and gone, nothing seems to change
Evil is as evil does, the sin remains the sameSilent cry
Hear the voices whisper, "Do it"
Shattered life
Fading into silent nothingnessNever show fear
Use your second sight
The wolves are always near
Lurking in the nightNever show fear
Use your second sight
The wolves are always near
