No Way to Be

Teddy Thompson

I'm on your back
I've got no patience
Defensive stance
It's just frustrationBut it's no way to be
That's no way to be
That's no way to beYou think too much of me
It gives me shivers
Of responsibilityBut that's no way to be
That's no way to be
That's no way to beWish it wasn't me
