Uprising

Sabatonâ•²

Warsaw riseDo you remember when, when the Nazis forced their rule on Poland 1939 and the allies turned away
From the underground rose a hope of freedom as a whisper
City in despair, but they never lost their faithWomen, men and children fight
They were dying side by side
And the blood they shed upon the streets
Was a sacrifice willingly paidWarsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came
Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call
History calling to you, 'Warszawo, walcz!'Spirit soul and heart
In accordance with the old traditions
1944 still the allies turn away
Fighting street to street
In a time of hope and desperation
Did it on their own and they never lost their faithWomen, men and children fight
They were dying side by side
And the blood they shed upon the streets
Was a sacrifice willingly paidWarsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came
Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call
History calling to you, 'Warszawo, walcz!'All the streetlights in the city
Broken many years ago
Break the curfew, hide in sewers
Warsaw, it's time to rise nowAll the streetlights in the city
Broken many years ago
Break the curfew, hide in sewers
Warsaw, it's time to rise nowWarsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
1944 help that never came
Calling Warsaw city at war
Voices from underground, whispers of freedom
Rise up and hear the call

History calling to you, 'Warszawo, walcz!'

Songwriters
JOAKIM BRODEN, PAER SUNDSTROEMPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/