When I Finally Get My Own Place

Aqualung

When I finally get my own place
The walls will be white
When I finally get my own place
I will stay out every night and it will be quiet
When I finally get my own place
It'll do its best to please me
When I finally get my own place
It will have windows that will leak
A garden I won't weed, fish I won't feed
You don't need to be lonely
You don't need to be lost
You don't need to know what you're living for
You just knock on my door
When I, when I
When I finally get my own place
I'll fly into a rage, I'll knock myself out
And alter hours of whispering through the keyhole
And I let myself back into your arms
You don't need to be lonely
You don't need to be lost
You don"t need to know what you're living for
You just knock on my door
When I finally get my own place
However low I go, it won't say a word
Let the floor come up to meet me
The walls collapse to keep me, it's the only way
You don't need to be lonely
You don't need to be lost
You don't need to know what you're living for
You don't need to be lonely
You don't need to be lost
You don't need to know what you're living for
You don't have to be sure
You just knock on my door
When I, when I
