

Sunburnt Days

Maximilian Hecker

Show me your coat and I'll resist
For all the girls that I have kissed
They owned and stood there for a day
Sang grateful songs and slipped away

Blazing suns
No disgrace
My shirt is blue
I love your face

Hide your cheek with dirt
Come and wear my shirt
Sunburnt days

I feel the gales that from ye blow
A momentary bliss bestow
As waving fresh their gladsome wing
You breathe a second fancy spring

Blazing suns
No disgrace
My shirt is blue
I love your face

Hide your cheek with dirt
Come and wear my shirt
Sunburnt days

One year ago I dried your eyes
No sounds, alas! these were no lies
Gay hope is theirs by fancy fed
The tear forgot as soon as shed

Blazing suns
No disgrace
My shirt is blue
I love your face

Hide your cheek with dirt
Come and wear my shirt

Sunburnt days
