

Cry Baby Cry

Sylvia

Cry, baby, no, I don't mind
You can be a baby, that's alright
Go on and cry, baby, cry We both know how love could be Anything but easy
Theres bound to be some tears Through all those ups and downs
Falling in love and out
Baby, if you are hurting now, I'm here And you can cry, baby
Go on and cry
You can use my shoulder anytime
You wanna cry, baby, cry Cry, baby, no, I don't mind
You can be a baby, that's alright
Go on and cry, baby, cry We all get down and sometimes we feel alone
Needing someone to hold
And it's more than we can take it If that's how you feel now
It's alright to let it out
'Cause I'm right here to wipe your tears away So go on and cry, baby
Go on and cry
You can use my shoulder anytime
You wanna cry, baby, cry Cry, baby, no, I don't mind
You can be a baby, that's alright
Go on and cry, baby, cry Cry, baby, go on cry
You can use my shoulder anytime
You wanna cry, baby, cry
