Get Your Guns

Nine Black Alps

Two summers with the light on Too tired to fall asleep

Too dumb to keep your clothes on

Too cynical to speakIs there any wonder why I bother?

Hanging 'round to take the pain

Is there any wonder why I bother?

Hanging 'round for you to feel the same'Cause in my world I couldn't wait

Turn you 'round to your face

For a time, for a place

To do you wrong so get your gunsHer picture in your pocket

Her memory at your door

Too tired to unlock it

Too scared to ask for moreIs there any wonder why I bother?

Hanging 'round to take the pain

Is there any wonder why I bother?

Coming down for you to fix the blame'Cause in my world I couldn't wait

Turn you 'round to your face

For a time, for a place

To do you wrong so get your guns Yeah, run

Yeah, yeahIs there any wonder why I bother?

Hanging 'round to take the pain

Is there any wonder why I bother?

Hanging 'round for you to feel the same'Cause in my world I couldn't wait

Turn you 'round to your face

For a time, for a place

To do you wrong so get your gunsSo get your gun

So get your gun

So get your gun
