Right Next To The Right One

Celine Dion

What if we were meant to be together
What if you were meant to be the one
I could hide a million years and try to believe
That any time the boy in mind will come and rescue me'Cause you're the fire, you're the one but you will never see the sun
If you don't know, you're right next to the right one
And I could call it many names but it's myself I need to blame
If you don't know, you're right next to the right oneIn the end you've got a friend for lifetime
Truly there to truly care for you
I know you cry a million tears so I want you to know
That a pretty face can take you places, you don't wanna go'Cause you're the fire, you're the one but you will never see the sun
If you don't know, you're right next to the right one
And I could call it many names but it's myself I need to blame
If you don't know, you're right next to the right oneSo in the end it all depends on whether you'll find
Warm embrace when I replace the one you had in mind'Cause you're the fire, you're the one but you will never see the sun
If you don't know, you're right next to the right one
I could call it many names but it's myself I need to blame
If you don't know, you're right next to the right oneIf you don't know, you're right next to the right one
I could call it many names but it's myself I need to blame
If you don't know, you're right next to the right one
Right next to the right one
