

Burn Rubber on Me

The Gap Band

Woo, I gave you my money, I gave you my time
Why you wanna hurt me, gurl
Are you serious, I'm just curious
Why you wanna hurt me, gurlJust because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girlNever, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the mettle
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, noYou took my money, you took my time
Made me think everything was fine
Then you upped and ran away
And made me just go crazyI never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, noJust because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girlI never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, noJust because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girlYou told me to go up the block
And get you a strawberry pop
When I got back to the flat
You had burned rubber out the backI went to the closet and saw no clothes
All I saw was hangers and poles
I went to the phone and called your mother
And told me you had burned rubber on me, CharlieOh, no, no
Oh, no, no
Oh, no, noJust because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girlI never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burned rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, no, oh, no, yeah, yeahJust because you're not for real

Why you wanna hurt, me girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me , girlYou took my money, you took my time
Made me think everything was fine
Like the clock on the wall, said ding-ding-dong
Got to find another lover that won't be goneShe won't put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber, burn rubber, on me, Charlie
No, no, no, noI never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burned rubber on me, CharlieNo, no, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no, no
