Lights Explode

Sanders Bohlke

we were best friends watching the lights explode and then you'd give me your hand and away we'd gowell you saved my life with the things you'd say when I would give you my heart on a terrible daywe wasted so much time under the sky
and now it's gone away and I could cry cry crywhatever happened to us whatever happened to us we were just two fools making the best of the ruleswe wasted so much time
now it's gone away
and I could cry cry
