

Run Run Run

Robin Junker

This is the road I want to take
This is the choice I want to make
This is the life that I create, yeah, yeah
Is this the start of something new?
Is this my only way to you?
This is the best that I can do, yeah, yeah
Where do we go?
Oh, oh, I want to know
Where do we go?
Oh, oh, I want to know
Why do I run, run, run, run?
Why do I run, run, run, run?
The days go by I can't deny
I can't erase your face
Why do I run, run, run, run?
This is the day I have to face
This is the moment to embrace
This is something I can't replace, yeah, yeah
Where do we go?
Oh, oh, I want to know
Where do we go?
Oh, oh, I want to know
Why do I run, run, run, run?

Why do I run, run, run, run?
The days go by I can't deny
I can't erase your face
Why do I run, run, run, run?
From the only home
I've ever known
From what I just found
And in circles all around
From the ones I love
And the stars above
To another space
I'm just trying to find my place
Am I right or wrong?
Where do I belong?
Will I ever stay?

Hey, I wanna know
Where do I go?
Why do I run?
Why do I run, run, run, run?
Why do I run, run, run, run?
Why do I run, run, run, run?
The days go by I can't deny
I can't erase your face
Why do I run, run, run, run?
