

Too Many Things On My Mind

Josh Rouse

Taking care of loved ones, hanging out with friends
Some big ideas going through their heads, mom
Got drunk on Tuesday, no sleep at night Too many things on my mind, I've Too many things, mom, on my mind Can we recover, what's been lost?
So many people living in a box, now
Turn on your TV, and stay offline Too many things on my mind, I've Too many things, mom, on my mind
A hundred years ago
Life was more simple then, than it is now
I'll need some heavy love
So I can keep my feet above the ground
Taking care of loved ones, hanging out with friends
Got no idea what goes on with them
So many questions, so little time Too many things on my mind, I've
Too many things, mom, on my mind Too many things, on my mind
