

Thirsty

The National

As far as I can tell
I'm nothing like a princess
But today I find myself
Curling up behind the house There's nothing in the air today
Now I know, I'm not so important Take these girly arms
And ever keep me
Take these girly arms
And ever keep me I don't have a hawk in my heart
No dumb ass dove in my brain
I don't have a hawk in my heart
No dumb ass dove in my dumb ass brain Take these girly arms
And ever keep me
Take these girly arms
And ever keep me I don't have a hawk in my heart
No, I don't have a hawk in my heart
No, I don't have a hawk in
