

Eggs Over Easy (Acoustic)

Steel Magnolia

Cookin' you breakfast on a Sunday mornin'
I should've seen this comin'
Even without warnin'
But you look so good there
Standin' in my kitchen
You want your eggs over easy
I said "Quit your bitchin'" Nothing ever came easy for me
Nothing in this life is guaranteed
Now I ain't your maker
But you makin' me lazy We missed church this morning
(Church this morning)
But baby you saved me I never wanted anyone before
The way I want you baby
Give me more I always wanted you to notice me
But now you're waking over next to me
And I, I cannot believe it Patty and Rufus are layin' their beggin'
We got the canine crew y'all
You know what I'm saying Nothing ever came easy for me
Nothing in this life is guaranteed
I'm cookin' you breakfast on a Sunday mornin'
