

Do You Really Need Her

Harry Connick, Jr.

What gives you the right to take my love
was it hard for you?
Did you cut me down cause I had too much
Don't you realize how much this hurts?
Are you satisfied?
Cause you know I want to cross this bridge you've burned
This is far enough, but I'll go on
I must go on
Do you really need her?
Do you really need her?
Did you take her just for the thrill of it?
Did you break my heart for the hell of it?
Do you really need her like I really need her
right now?
People want to hear I'm better now well, of course I am! You took my whole wide world and you knocked it down Things are clearer now and then you can start a war,
but I can start again!
I'm not strong enough, but I'll go on
I must go on
Do you really need her?
Do you really need her?
Did you take her just for the thrill of it?
Did you break my heart for the hell of it?
Do you really need her, like I really need her
right now?
Everything I knew I've lost because you just did something you could do
You really need her?
Do you really need her?
Did you take her just for the thrill of it?
Did you break my heart for the hell of it?
Do you really need her like I really need her
right now,
right now,
rightnow.
