

Since I Saw You Last

Gary Barlow

They took my voice
Erased my past
With all that noise
It couldn't last
With words so cruel
I washed my face
Hoped one day
I'd wake up in a better place Today I took back what was stolen
And gave new life to what was frozen
One mouth talking
A dead man walking
A thousand faces watched me falling
I've made my peace with what may happen
Accepted I won't be in fashion
Oh you gave, I got it
Yeh you gave, I got it all back
Since I saw you last When brothers land
And take what's good
You can win a war
Oh, and shed no blood
Everybody plays their part
Oh we let the haters hate
While everybody's losing heart
Lying in the longest grass I sit and wait Today I took back what was stolen
And gave new life to what was frozen
One mouth talking
A dead man walking
A thousand faces watched me falling
I've made my peace with what may happen
Accepted I won't be in fashion
Oh you gave, I got it
Yeh you gave, I got it all back
Since I saw you last
