Walking With Shadows

Gary Numan

All my life
They've been here.
Waiting for you.
Patiently.
They want your tears to fall
All they want is your purest sin
All they want is your heart and soul
They want to welcome you in
Innocent,
But they will lead you
Back to me.
They will seem

All they need is one tortured soul
They need walking shadows
All they need is your last confession
They need your pain to show me
I'm waiting for the unforgiven
Waiting for you to come home
Waiting for sleep to come
I waiting for my one obsession
'Innocence is pain in disguse'
They said.
Now I believe
