Let It Go

Lorene Drive

She's a killer, know what I'm talking about
But I might have been mistaken
Overreacting, come on, let's face it
You're so dramatic, you might as well embrace itShe looks so good it hurts
What am I supposed to do?
Oh girl, for sure I would
You know, I might as wellLet it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
But she looks but she looks so good
Let it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
Take a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurtsThat girl's a killer, I think it's safe to say
This girl's got me dying to survive her
I can't deny her, come on, let's face it
You're so dramatic, you might as well embrace it
You're so dramatic, you might as wellLet it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
But she looks but she looks so good
Let it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
Take a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurtsTake a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurts
Take a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurtsTake a break, not another word
Take a break, not another
But she looks so good it hurts
Goddamn, she really looks so goodTake a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurts
Take a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurtsLet it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
But she looks but she looks so good
Let it go, a broken heart, a broken heart don't feel so bad
Take a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurtsTake a break, not another word
But she looks but she looks so good it hurts
