Moments Over Exaggerate

Poison the Well

Open everything around
Now I want to say kiss me
Now I want to say kiss me
You don't want to ruin anything, daring and beautiful stonesAim at me
Because you never aim at me
Cursed with never being seen
In your dreams, in your dreamsI will, I'll walk around dead to you
I'll lie around dead to me
And I feel soon you'll wake with imaginary dreams
And wanting to hold this, hold this memoryAlways wondering
Who's coming to save
Who's saving me
Who's saving meCursed with never being seen
In your dreams, in your dreamsI'll walk around dead to you
I'll lie around dead to me
Open everything around so all can see
How fast you waved goodbye
