Music (Simon Aston Remix) (Edit)

Leela James

Somebody play on the guitar strings
Makes me think of my favorite songs
Reminds me of when I heard Aretha sing
Gladys, Tina and Chaka Khan
Can't go back to yesterday
But can we just put the thongs awayAnd fall back in love with music
Nothin' but the music, oh
Everybody knows that Marvin's gone
Still I gotta tell you what's going on
Said the music goneWhere'd the soul go?
It's all about the video
We don't sing no more
Where's the music gone?Where'd the music go?
It's all just for the dough
It ain't soul no more
Where's the music gone?Still hear Donny playin' them keys
Singin' one day we'll all be free
Can't even turn on my radio
Somebody hollerin' bout a bitch or a hoRight now I'm missing music
Black folks count on musicWhere'd the soul go?
It's all about the video
We don't sing no more
Where's the music gone?Where'd the music go?
It's all just for the dough
It ain't soul no more
Where's the music gone?

Songwriters
Avila, Bobby Ross Jr. / Avila, Izzy / Parker, Shavoni Scott / James, Aleesha / Brown, Louis E IiiPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group, Royalty Network, RESERVOIR MEDIA MANAGEMENT INC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/