

Away

Mantra Featuring Lydia Rhodes

The days were brighter
Gardens more blooming
The nights had more hope
 In their silence
 The wild was calling
 Wishes were whispering
 The time was there
 But without a meaning
 Away, away in time
Every dream's a journey away
Away to a home away from care
Everywhere's just a journey away
 The days departed
 Gardens deserted
 This frail world
 My only rest ?

The wild calls no more
 Wishes so hollow
 The barefoot boy
 Weeping in an empty night
 Away
 Cherish the moment
 Tower the skies
 Don't let the dreamer
 Fade to gray like grass
 No falling for life
 A gain for every loss
 Time gathered me
 But kept me flying
For this gift of dream, I must pay the price
 With the loss of life's pleasures
