

Friends

28 Days

why do we bother sometimes why not give this shit up we're meant to be friends but we now we can't.
can't let our guard down for too long we value our friendship so highly but too easily forgotten we were so tight when we were seventeen when we want what we want what fucking happend that's what I've got to know to know.
I think we've lost touch with or maybe things have changed what our friendships really all about work it out people do that's cool we can work it out now we are older and stronger and more our own men just a little confused cause we don't understand why we can't hangout forever like the old days have been just a phase the conflict we feel our friendship was real it couldn't like you went and changed it in fact is just confusion cause it feels wasn't me it wasn't you it's all and illusion strange happens to us all its just not that strangewhat our friendships really all about people do that's cool we can work it out I think we've lost touch with
we can work it out or maybe things have changed I thought we were meant to be friends

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>