Every Storm (runs Out Of Rain)

Gary Allan

So you're standing in the middle of the thunder and lighting
And I know you're feeling like you just cant win but you're trying
Its hard keep on keepin on when you're bein pushed around
Dont even know which way is up, you just keep spinning down around and down
Every storm runs, runs out of rain
Just like every dark night turns into day
Every heartache will fade away
Just like every storm runs, runs out of rain
So hold your head up and tell yourself that theres something more and walk out that door
Go find a new rose, dont be afraid of the thorns cause we all have thorns
Just put your feet up to the edge put your face in the wind
And when you fall back down, keep on rememberin
Every storm runs, runs out of rain
Just like every dark night turns into day
Every heartache will fade away
Just like every storm runs, runs out of rain
Its gonna run out of pain
Its gonna run out of sting
Its gonna leave you alone
Its gonna set you free and set you free
Every storm runs, runs out of rain
Just like every dark night turns into day
Every heartache will fade away
Just like every storm runs, runs out of rain
Its gonna set you free
Its gonna run out of pain
And set you free
