These Days are Numbered

The Head and the Heart

There's always hope
Hope in death
It brings these points
Refines the rest'Cause these days are numbered
This life resolute
I need this faith to keep me walking
To keep me aliveOh darling, oh darling
Won't you please take me home
Oh darling, my sweet darling
Won't you please keep me warmWe must strive to be
Be like the moon
Beacon distracted by each tune'Cause these days are numbered
This life resolute
You all complain if it rains or shines
But we're never mad at the moonOh darling, oh darling
Won't you please keep me warm
Oh darling, sweet darling
Won't you please take me home
