

You

Waterdeep

You cause my heart to sing
You are always listening
You understand my dreams
You do You cut away my lies
You see through my disguise
You are not so far away from me
As I thought Youd be You love me as I am
Even when I cannot stand
You whisper in my ear
All the things I need to hear
From You You are a mystery
You bring strong men to their knees
You change the hearts of kings
You do
