

Lincoln's Eyes

Mercury Rev

What explodes like a fractal, pops like a light bulb
Looks really awful at four in the morning
Moves with a dead stare, coils around your ankles
Fangs long as neckties and strikes without warning? What implodes like a Zeppelin, cracks like a pavement
Smokes in the basement and knows when your lying
Comes to a dead stop, forgives you like Jesus
Cold as a wind chill with eyes like Abe Lincoln? What is dark like a birthmark, pulls like a magnet
Male and female and covets like a dragon
Grows to a shark length, contracts to amoeba
Lives in your soul and loves you like I do? What appears like an angel, stabs like a dagger
Fills you with light and bleeds you of matter
Comes to a dead stop, forgives you like Jesus
Hands you a love only found in the Vedas?
