Immortality

Tragedian

Visions Of crimson glory,chasing a dream of mine
Running the neon rainbow,flying the skies divine
Opening my eyes on a new day,leaving the past behind
Away from all myth and story,no longer i am blind
I am blindNo more sorrow
No pain to hide
Tonight ill know the answer who am iDestinies path is calling,writings on the wall
Celestial sign is burning,catching the lost stars fall
Living life with no worries,never on the run
Feeling we are immortal,were reaching for the sunNo more sorrow
No pain to hide
Tonight ill know the answer who am iIm on my way
Day by day
I am slowly fading away
Away
