

New Friends

Pinegrove

is there anyone here I know look round the room, whatever I let it go Steve's in Germany, that's it try to think of anyone else no, yeah that's it I resolve to make new friends I like my old ones but I fucked up so I'll start again what's the worst that could happen? strange thread like my good days tie it round my finger I felt so frayed have my mind on her on my own but when I look back up everybody else was gone So! I resolve to make new friends somebody tell me quit my head help me forget her yeah what's the worst that could happen end of summer & I'm still in love with her I said forget it was it worse that it wasn't sure
end of summer & I'm still in love with her I said forget it
forget it, forget it
