

Into Dust (House M.D. OST)

Mazzy Star

Still falling
Breathless and on again
Inside today
Beside me today A round broken in two
Till your eyes shed into dust
Like two strangers turning into dust
Till my hand shook with the weight of you I could possibly be fading
Or have something more to gain
I could feel myself growing colder
I could feel myself under your feet
Under your feet It was you breathless and torn
I could feel my eyes turning into dust
And two strangers turning into dust
Turning into dust
