Yoko

Ace Troubleshooter

You know who she is, you know what she does
Only I know what that girl is doing to you
You know who she is, you know what she does
Only I know what that girl is going to do to youThere's one for every band
Almost one for every man
If you're not careful, she'll eat you up
So please be carefulYou know who she is, you know what she does
Only I know what that girl is doing to you
You know who she is, you know what she does
Only I know what that girl is going to do to youYoko, Yoko, nagging all the time
Wasting all his time, Yoko, Yoko
Be careful with that, boy
Better be careful with that, boySHe'll win you with composure
And perfect nonchalance
She'll lure you in and snag you
Make you think you're the FonzShe'll get you in her clutches
Make you her confidant
She'll nag you and she'll drag you
Man you've gotta get rid of that debutanteShe'll nag you to death
And by inches will suck all the life
That you somehow have left
Yeah, it will only be nag, nag, nag, nag
