

Shove This Jay-Oh-Bee (feat. Biz Markie)

Canibus

Yo six o'clock every morning you waking up yawning
To the sound of your alarm clock alarm
About an hour from now
You should be at the place of employment
Which is annoying cause it's so boring
Your co-workers are talking too loud for you to ignore them
It affects your occupational performance
You wonder why your work load is so enormous
Because your boss just laid off three quarters of the whole office
People get depressed, they get ulcers
From the stress that the corporate environment causes
Regardless of how you ultimately want to solve this Seems to me like you've got one of four choices:
You could take a new job offer for more chips
Stick it out a little longer or forfeit
But my advice to anybody that wants to quit
It'll feel much better if you say it like this: Take this job and shove it
I ain't workin' here no more
Take this job and shove it
I ain't workin' here no more
Take this job and shove it
I ain't workin' here no more
Take this job, take this job, take this job and shove it Yo, if your boss is a S-O-be Tell him to S-H-O-V-E the J-O-be Put your middle finger up slowly
Put it close enough to his face so he can examine it closely
Say I ain't workin' here no more
Who do you think you are?
Rip your apron off, throw it on the floor
Run to the door, to the payphone
Make a toll-free call
Tell your spouse what happened and where you are
So they can come and get you in the car later on
And help you search for a new nine to five job
If the unemployment line ain't that long
You can take your time printin' out W-9 forms
Eventually, you'll get on if you try hard enough
And you'll get money if you keep punchin' your time card enough
Maybe you hate it, maybe you love it

But if you hate it all you gotta do is get mad and tell the boss to Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job, take this job, take this job and shove it Yo, some occupations are like slave gigs

The boss is favored and get placed in something spacious

While the most hated get placed in some small cubicle spaces

Or get thrown down in the basement, get your stapler confiscated

You constantly waitin' for a paycheck

Twelve months passed by and you still ain't get paid yet

Here's a optimistic motto

If you ever late for today you could say you early for tomorrow

Most nine to five's are hard

'Cause the description in the job ain't no picnic in the park

People get hired

Drink coffee to stay wired

So they don't get tired, sleep late, and get fired You came in late, you already ate,

Nowww, you want to take a lunch break!?! Ay, yo bust it, ain't no need to discuss it

Just take this job and shove it, right between your buttocks Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job, take this job, take this job and shove it Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Ah Ah ah ah ahahah ah

I ain't workin' here no more

Take this job and shove it

I ain't workin' here no more

Ay Ay Ay ayee ay

I ain't workin' here no more Canibus and the Biz

It's comin' from Canibus and the Biz

It's comin' from Canibus and the Biz

From, from Canibus and the Biz
