

When You're Alone

Bruce Springsteen

Times were though love was not enough
So you said sorry Johnny I'm gone gone gone
    You said my act was funny
But we both knew what was missing honey
    So you lit out on your own
Now that pretty form that you've got baby
    Will make sure you get along
But you're gonna find out some day honey
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you ain't nothing but alone
Now I was young and pretty on the mean streets of the city
    And I fought to make 'em my home
With just the shirt on my back I left and swore I'd never look back
    And man I was gone gone gone
But there's things that'll knock you down you don't even see coming
    And send you crawling like a baby back home

You're gonna find out that day sugar
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you ain't nothing but alone
I knew some day your runnin' would be through
    And you'd think back on me and you
    And your love would be strong
You'd forget all about the bad and think only of all the laughs that we had
    And you'd wanna come home
    Now it ain't hard feelings or nothin' sugar
    That ain't what's got me singing this song
It's just nobody knows honey where love goes
    But when it goes it's gone gone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you're alone
    When you're alone you ain't nothing but alone
