Close The Door

Adam Faith

I'll ask you once, look in my eyes
Is it gonna work is my advice
Have a little trust in me, I love you
Baby, can't you see? It's a lie and I don't careHave a little faith it's only fair
That you trust in me I love you
And you'll always be hereA piece of my heart
My peace of mind that's for sure
'Til you close the door to giving to givingDon't call it quits, it would be a shame
Our little fits would be to blame
I'd give all of me and my precious time
I'm not afraid to give and what's mine is mineI'll ask you once, look in my eyes
Is it gonna work is my advice
Have a little trust in me I love you
And you'll always be, ohA piece of my heart
My peace of mind that's for sure
'Til you close the door to giving, to giving
'Til you close the door to givingClose the door to giving
Close the door to giving
Close the door to giving
