

Key West

This Frontier Needs Heroes

She's as pretty, pretty as a lioness and like a lion I tamed her myself I walked right up and said "Hey you'll never guess!" It's a beautiful sunset, as south as you can get. but I never had a home that I could call my own so I guess I'm gonna have to roam or build a nest Tonight will be Key West She laughed at first, and so I smiled back Then I asked her "What do you think about that?" we are closer to Cuba, then the U.S.
Where people make all their money waiting for shipwrecks And there used to be a train all the way from Maine but then a hurricane wiped it out, and its never been the same Hemingway really loved his cats Polydactyl now you try saying that or Jimmy Buffet's hats he put them in his will, kicked his wife right out The old man and the sea, or good old hunters. But I'm not here for myself, I really just wanna help to try and be just blessed you and me should start a really good business You won't have to worry cause here it never frosts so we can sleep outside under the spanish moss that's when I started to detect a subtle pause when in my mind all i heard was applause Well why don't we invest in all the world's homeless and put our ills to rest i betcha that would be the best or hitchhike our way to Key west.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>