Lost On The Way Home (feat. Solange)

Chromeo

Who's gonna to have your time, when it's down to the minute? (Baby)
Who's gonna have your time?
Who's gonna have your back, when the shove comes a pushin'? (Uh, ooh baby)
Who's gonna have your back?I know you do
I'm pretty sure you had it since I've met you
I listen to you talk,
And it's like you forgetin' about all the bullshit that we've been through
But I've paid my dues, whatever you choose
I took the burden off of you too
I don't know why it's such a struggle to make you come around to my point of viewAnd I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I care
But baby I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I'm there
And when it gets down to itI can never leave I'm too proud
I've got my mind made up, my feet on the ground
When you're up all night and you never make a sound
Where I'm not too far if you look aroundWho's gonna have your right, when your left needs leanin'? (Ooh baby)
Who's gonna take your side?
Who's gonna hold you down, when your heart beat's beatin'?
Ooh baby you knowI know it's you
That's no excuse
And we can't go back, cause there's no pact and there's no truce
In other words, it's just no use
I told you first, when you know the truth
I know you're thirsty for a change,
But nothing can arrange the strangeness that we're goin' throughAnd I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I care
But baby I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I'm there
And when it gets down to itI can never leave I'm too proud
I've got my mind made up, my feet on the ground
When you're up all night and you never make a sound
Where I'm not too far if you look aroundAnd I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I care
But baby I know it's gonna take time
But you know that I'm there
And when it gets down to itWe had much of everything
Your touch was everything

Went dutch on everything
But got lost on the way homeWe had much of everything
Your touch was everything
Went dutch on everything
But got lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
Lost on the way home
