

I Must Love Drama

B5

Why do I put myself through this?
Why do I even try to make it work
When I know this ain't gon' change? Why do I keep on comin' back
When I know that this is wack?
What am I gonna do?
I am so addicted to you ,girl(What should I do?)
When leavin' you is not an option, babe
(Am I a fool?)
When I know where this is headed, babe(Guess now we're through)
Whether I stay or whether I go
I just go with the flow
'Cause there's no turning back
There's no turning back I must like havin' you hurt me
Girl, and I knew we was done right from the start
I must love drama, I must love drama, I must love drama
'Cause I just can't seem to leave you alone Just because something looks good
Don't mean it's good for you
And that's the honest truth
Yeah, my mama told me that It ain't everything is cool
Then the next time hatin' you
Something's wrong with that
Yet I can't be without you, girl(What should I do?)
When leavin' you is not an option, babe
(Am I a fool?)
When I know where this is headed, babe(Guess now we're through)
Whether I stay or whether I go
I just go with the flow
'Cause there's no turning back
There's no turning back I must like havin' you hurt me
Girl, and I knew we was done right from the start
I must love drama, I must love drama, I must love drama
'Cause I just can't seem to leave you alone I must like havin' you hurt me
Girl, and I knew we was done right from the start
I must love drama, I must love drama, I must love drama
'Cause I just can't seem to leave you alone Why can't I leave you alone, girl?
You're runnin' the show, I have no control
Wish I could turn me off but I won't
I can't let you go I must like havin' you hurt me
Girl, and I knew we was done right from the start

I must love drama, I must love drama, I must love drama
'Cause I just can't seem to leave you alone I must like havin' you hurt me
Girl, and I knew we was done right from the start
I must love drama, I must love drama, I must love drama
'Cause I just can't seem to leave you alone
