

Paralyzed

Black Flag

(yeah...!) Spinning down the drain again Walls closing in again Curling up inside again no way in out up down or otherwise again i can't move i can't speak i can't shake these troubles off of me i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me Tracking in wrapped up again Shadows Inward, turning inward again Paralyzed and going blind again i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me i can't move and i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me wound up so tight again my soul seeps out its pores paralyzed and going blind paralyzed and going blind again i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these troubles off of me i can't move i can't speak and i can't shake these feelings off of me (yeah...!)
