

As Oceans

Wolfgang

(Vocals - BASTI)

Close your eyes and rise as oceans
Breathin' floatin' across the waves
Underneath you all sorts of emotions
As this blue horizon calls And no God nor man can control where you roam
As the current serves my motor, my motor Now awake! like the oceans feel your waves
Tentacles to crash rocks on shores
Tides devoid of emotion
All your wonderful dreams washed away And no God nor man can control where you roam
As the current serves my motor, my motor
Still pushing on As i stand on the sand being dragged by your hand
Like an anchor that's bringin' me
Down below the water
'Cause man He can control where you roam As the current serves my motor, my motor
And i'm pushing
And i'm pushing on
And i'm pushing on
And i'm pushing on
And i'm pushing on
I'm still pushing on Now rest as oceans
Be still, still yet always in constant motion
Quiet but never afraid
Silent but always awake
And no God nor man can dictate where you stand
No boundaries cast forever
You last forever you last
As the ocean
As the ocean
As the ocean
As the ocean
As the ocean calls your name
it calls your name.
