She Put The Music In Me

Calee Reed

It started with rock-a-bye, comforting when I'd cry
All in her own style
Then popcorn before my eyes, turning frowns upside down
Into smilesWith songs of the birds up high, looking at the blue, blue sky
The wind as it rushes by
Then leading me, guiding me, walking beside me she helped me
To walk in the lightAnd she built my house on a rock
And she lives all that she taught
And she is all that a woman should be
She put the music in meI knew He was really there, He heard my child's prayer
Answering from up above
She gave like a little stream, I was her sunbeam
And I felt my Savior's love
I saw her kneel and pray with our family every day
Listening to each whispered word
Gentle in deed and thought, all the things Jesus taught
Following promptings she heardAnd she lives to search, ponder, pray
And she gives every day
So her thanks will always be thanks indeed
She put the music in meHe made the tiny wings of each little bird that sings
In the leafy treetops up high
And all creatures great and small, I know God made them all
Because of her sweet lullabiesShe's like a star shining bright
And helps me to choose the right
And she gives me the hope of a life yet to be
She put the music in me
She is so good to me
Heavenly Father sent her to me
And she taught me to lift up my voice and sing
She put the music in meShe put the music in meShe put the music in me
