

Scream

The Young Dubliners

Scream, loud as you can
Makes you feel, loud as you can
End all the things you keep inside
Come on out scream "I'm alive!"
Scream, loud as you can

Julian won't go to school
Says he don't like all the rules
Nothing here to change his mind
Moves ahead but seems to fall behind
He's all alone

Still he stays up in his room
Another window, sees the room
Wonders if someday he'll fly
Go somewhere where no one asks him why
He likes to be alone

Sometimes when he looks into the night
Wonders if he'll ever make that flight

Then he'll scream, loud as he can
Makes him feel, loud as he can
End all the things you keep inside
Come on out scream, "I'm alive!"
Scream, loud as you can

Oooh...
And you feel it
Can't believe it

Mary Ann can't stop the tears
Cared for her mother all those years
When the sun came up today
Angels came and took her mom away
And left her all alone

Somehow feels she sacrificed her life

Now she'll scream, loud as she can

Makes her feel, loud as she can
Oh, all the things you keep inside
Come on out scream, "I'm alive!"
Scream, loud as you can
Scream, loud as you can
Hey, hey, hey

Loud as you can

Scream

Lyrics submitted by Alvin McDerane.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>