

I Need You Now

Olly Murs

I wonder how you kiss first thing in the morning before you go, go to work are you smiling at me?
Do you laugh at my jokes even the ones that you've heard before They'll be times when everything's not perfect
When we fight do you say things like
"I hate you" or "it's all your fault"
Or do you say nothing at all? I don't know who you are
Don't even know your name
I wish we could talk,
But I don't have a number to call So hold your hand up if you hear me,
I've been searching but all that I've found
Is everywhere that I go,
I'm standing alone in the crowd Maybe you're right here in front of me,
Am I looking too hard? It's hard to see.
Give me a sign
I'm starting to wonder if you've lost your way. I've been right here waiting patiently you're late, should be right here next to me
Need you tonight, thing of you all of the time. I don't know who you are
Don't even know your name
I wish we could talk
But I don't have a number to call. So hold you hand up if you hear me,
I've been searching but all that I've found
Is everywhere that I go,
I'm standing alone in the crowd. And I need you now
I need you now I wonder how you kiss
How you fight
How you laugh
How you smile
All of the time I don't know who you are
Don't even know your name
I wish we could talk
But I don't have a number to call. So hold your hand up if you hear me
I've been search but all that i found
Is everywhere that I go
I'm standing alone in the crowd And I need you now.
I need you now
