Fey

Inkubus Sukkubus

One of the fey - within the dark and gloom we'll find our way
One of the fey - we have a calling which we must obey
Here in our lives,supernature lives and breathes
Once in a while see your future in our eyes
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, secret lives are charmed and wise
Drifting away, the shroud that blinds the soul is cast away
In joy and pain and dark emotions seek the inner flame
Caught in the light you hold them till they fade and die
Blessed with the sight your spirit soars to distant skies
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, secret lives are charmed and wise
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, in our eyes the moon shall rise
One of the fey, you feel a magnet pull you can't ignore
Finding the way, the path will lead you to the open door
Lost in a sea of busy times and mundane lives
In time we'll see future lies in open minds
One of the fey,we feel the magic through you counting day
Riding the wind, the path who'll lead you to the open door
Lost in a sea, busy times and mundanes lives
In time,we'll see the future lies in all that rise
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, secret lives are charmed and wise
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, in our eyes the moon shall rise
Oh, we have magic in our lives
Oh, secret lives are charmed and wise
Oh, we have magic in our lives and soul
Oh, in our eyes the moon shall rise
