The Cliks

Fuck your pain away
Its what you had to do
To fall on through to emotionFuck your pain away
You slipped on through
I felt in you the commotionHey I wanna go home
Dont wanna be here alone
Yeah, I really cant stayCHORUSOh I really ought to go
No, I really cant stay
Oh this pain in my head
No, it wont go away
Oh I really ought to go
Got to find my own way
But this fear and this dread
Says that I must obey AHHH.Fuck your pain away
I saw in you, I fell on through
To devotionREPEAT PRE-CHORUS TO CHORUSSo if you say you wanna stay the night, then feel free
Or if you say wanna take the flight to feel me
But if you change your mind and go away
Then come what may
But know that Ill be by your sideREPEAT CHORUS
