

Freedom

Nizlopi

Call me up and that's all I need
Bring your loving, smiling face over
I feel like, getting it right
Overnight, start over I thought playing that loving game
Would never be simple again
But you're staying overnight
So maybe I'm doing something right You can feel it in the trees
I feel it by degrees
Feel it fresh and new
I'm getting myself in love with you The sun will rise up and you'll be in freedom
So much freer than you were before
It's in the seed now, it's in the season
I'm so excited it's knocking down your door And they say, it's such a funny story
After a winter of getting dull and blue like a Tory
In getting all feared up, as the bond that ties
Cries, lies, incites the tears to your eyes And the job will know I'm insane
To go running from love again
Into a lover's arms
Like a burglar running out on an alarm It's a fucking swarm of bees
Or some waitress, it's a tease
Or some song was full of light
Coming 'round to you late at night The sun will rise up, and you'll be in freedom
So much freer than you were before
It's in the seed now, it's in the season
I'm so excited it's knocking down your door The sun will rise up and I will wise up
So much freer than we were before It's in your CD, it's fucking teaming
Saw it around you taking you on a tour
And now, now, call the fuzz, it's such a buzz From the start
You press the memory
You press the memory to your heart What you waiting for?
A fallen love is an idea for sure
What you waiting for?
Like there was any law
She's like a sonnet, she's so on it From the start
You press the memory
You press the memory to your heart What you waiting for?
Fallen love's an idea for sure
What you waiting for?
Like there was any law The sun will rise up, you'll be in freedom

So much freer than you were before
It's in the seed now, it's in the season
So excited it's knocking down your door You'll bring that blessing
We'll sing the rest in Freedom, to prisoner, to freedom
