

Dead Man's Clothes

Tony Elenburg

Tony Elenburg, David Vestal

In the depths of the grave, death had it's victory
Then Jesus called out, a still heart began to beat
Like Lazarus before, I heard Him call to me
He made life come forth, when there was no breath in me
Out of the dark that imprisoned me
The stone rolled away, and now I am free

I'm Free, I am Free
Take the Dead Man's Clothes off of me
I'm Free, I am Free
Take the Dead Man's Clothes off of me

At the end of myself, was only tears and pain
I cried out to God, He took my hurt away
Away from the past that bled all the life from me
From the mercy of lies, and now I am Free

I'm Free, I am Free
Take the Dead Man's Clothes off of me
I'm Free, I am Free
Take the Dead Man's Clothes off of me

I want to dance, I want the world to know
