Lady Killer

Priestess

Turn the scissors with open blades
All her garments were burnt
Recalling pictures of olden days
All these feeling returnIf you're breathing, you better pray
In the shadows remain
I'll be stalking you night and day
'Til you've shared all my painNow we step into the fireBeware, you will pay
Lady killer
I swear, you will pay
Lady killerBait the killer and lie awake
'Til the morning unfolds
Now he's feeding on my mistakes
And the trail has run coldAll the violence that fills the world
Leaving nothing for shame
This is what some are capable of
Such things I have learnedHear my vow and fear my vengeanceBeware, you will pay
Lady killer
I swear, you will pay
Lady killerBeware, you will pay
Lady killer
I swear, you will pay
Lady killer
